

ANTARAThai govt rejects election delay despite deadly violenceANTARABangkok (ANTARA News/AFP) - Thailand's government Thursday rejected calls to postpone February elections after clashes between police and opposition protesters in the capital left one policeman dead and dozens wounded on both sides. The new ...y más »

Leer más: Antara: Google Noticias