

DAY IN A LIFE: A Bangladesh garment workerReuters AlertNetThose criticisms reached fever pitch in April when the Rana Plaza complex just outside Dhaka collapsed, killing more than 1,130 people, mostly garment workers who had been told to return to work despite visible cracks in the structure. But there is ...

Leer más: Plaza Satellite: Google Noticias