

Queens Returns To Normalcy After World War II Western Queens Gazette As the world began to settle into an uneasy peace, large numbers of U.S. troops remained behind in Europe to guard against a new menace, as Soviet troops amassed behind an Iron Curtain thrown up across the Communist satellite nations. On October 3, an ...y más »

Leer más: Plaza Satellite: Google Noticias