

Toowoomba's first high-rise gets long overdue faceliftThe SatelliteThe Heritage Plaza tower became Toowoomba's first high-rise office building when it was officially opened in September, 1983, by the then Premier Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen. The $3 million project is the first major exterior refurbishment in its lifetime.

Leer más: Plaza Satellite: Google Noticias